Introduction to the Library

Your library card (first one free for residents – a replacement card costs $10.00 for adults and $5.00 for minors) enables you to:

- Borrow books, CDs, and selected magazines for three weeks and videos and DVDs for one week ($1.00 charge per video/DVD) – from any public library in the State.
- Renew books CDs and videos/DVDs over the telephone and in person – limited to one renewal per item. Online renewal is not available at this time.
- Use the Internet in the Library at no charge –one hour sessions at seven stations and fifteen minute sessions at one express station.
- Access the Hawaii State Public Library System’s Online Databases (full text) from home or the office via the Internet. The articles can be printed ($0.15 per page if printed at the library) or e-mailed to any valid e-mail address.

The PAC enables you to:

- Access the Hawaii State Public Library System’s Public Access Catalog (PAC) and search by keyword, author, title, subject and more or search the Hawaii Newspaper Index (HONOLULU ADVERTISER/STAR-BULLETIN)
- Request items (“hold/reserve”) from other libraries and pick up at the library of your choice, using your valid library card.
- Access your library account for the due dates of items checked out, the status of items requested, *fines, and other account messages.

You are welcome, of course, to browse our wide selection of books, including Reference, Hawaiian, Children’s, Young Adult and Adult Collections. We also offer a selection of general interest magazines and newspapers, with most of the Neighbor Island’s papers available. Microfilm reader/printers are available at a charge of $0.15 per page. The Photocopier costs $0.20 per page. You can also visit us online at : <<http://www.hawaii.gov/kaneohepl>>.
