
Kaneohe History Page

- KANEOHE: A GLIMPSE OF THE PAST
- KANEOHE: A HISTORY OF CHANGE
- KANEOHE HISTORY TIME-LINE (Forthcoming)
- KANEOHE PUBLIC LIBRARY TIMELINE

Online at: http://www.hspls.org/kaneohepl/kaneohehistory/kaneohe_history_page.html

Kaneohe Public Library
January 5, 2010

45-829 Kamehameha Highway
Kaneohe, HI 96744 U.S.A.

Phone: 808-233-5674 (Public Service Hrs.)
Phone: 808-233-5676 (24-Hour Message)

TIME LINE

Kaneohe Public Library
January 5, 2010

*A little slice of history ... 46
years of service and aloha*

<http://www.hspls.org/kaneohepl>

Kaneohe Public Library

Time Line

- 1961: Public Library under consideration on the campus of Castle High School
- 1961: Kaneohe Public Library land price set at $1.00 per foot by City Council
- 1962: Groundbreaking Ceremony for Kaneohe Public Library held on January 23.
- 1963: Kaneohe Public Library opens on January 4 in the Kaneohe Civic Center area.
- 1964: Friends of Kaneohe Library established
- 1969: Library's roof springs a leak.
- 1970: Bookmobile, "Holoholo Akamai II" serving rural Koolaupoko
- 1976: Historical Photograph Collection developed by Eileen Root and Marge Stromgren
- 1983: First public library in the State to install Online Public Access Catalog, with automated circulation system
- 1990: Library opens seven days per week
- 1991: New Bookmobile service offered at Kaneohe and Pearl City Public libraries

- 1996: Free public Internet access available
- 2000: Bookmobile service discontinued
- 2000: Home Page launched
- 2000: Pay telephone installed on lanai
- 2000: New Air Conditioner and Roof
- 2001: Introduction to the Internet for Beginners class offered
- 2002: Library public service schedule cut to five days per week
- 2002: Library blessed
- 2003: Summer Reading Program continues to flourish
- 2004: New windows installed; large print collection grows significantly
- 2004: Microfilm purchased, filling major gaps in the HONOLULU ADVERTISER and HONO-

Internet Stations in use

LULU STAR-BULLETIN back runs

- 2005: Nine public service hours added to schedule (open six days per week)
- 2005: Five directional signs placed on Kamehameha Highway and Waikalua, providing a visual cue to locating the library
- 2006: Bookmobile moved to Kakaako by the Friends of the Library of Hawaii
- 2007: Three free lectures on the history of Kaneohe held in conjunction with CELEBRATE KANEOHE
- 2008: New furniture installed, giving the library a new look
- 2009: WI-FI available, effective January 12
- 2009: Budget crisis worsens; public library furloughs begin on December 16.
- 2009: Work on the long-awaited City & County Parking Lot begins in October, which will add 20+ very necessary stalls.

Kaneohe Public Library
January 5, 2010

45-829 Kamehameha Highway
Kaneohe, HI 96744 U.S.A.

Phone: 808-233-5674 (Public Service Hrs.)

Phone: 808-233-5676 (24-Hour Message)